Dear all,

Following on from our two successful Sleep and Chronobiology Summer Schools in Oxford, we are pleased to announce that we will be running another school in 2016 from 24th to 29th July. We are now accepting applications, please see below for more information.

2016 SUMMER SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENT

Applications are now being accepted for the Oxford Sleep and Chronobiology Summer School, to be held at the University of Oxford from 24th to 29th July 2016.

The Sleep and Circadian Neuroscience Institute (SCNi) at the University of Oxford will host a sleep medicine and chronobiology (primarily circadian clock) summer school in 2016. The five day School will consist of a series of shared lectures and seminars as well as separate, subject-specific workshops. The aim of both summer school curricula is to give attendees an understanding of their subject area, from fundamental research to applied science.

Costs:

Registration fee: £200

This will cover the costs of lunches and socials but unfortunately cannot cover accommodation costs. A comprehensive list of accommodation in Oxford will be circulated to all attendees.

A small number of travel bursaries will be available. Please highlight in your covering letter if you would like to be considered for this and your reasons for requesting bursary assistance.

Application:

To apply for a place please submit the following to scni@ndcn.ox.ac.uk:

1. A covering letter, including confirmation that if offered a place you will be able to attend. Please indicate whether you would like to attend the sleep medicine or the chronobiology workshops.

2. A research abstract of your current work. This should be no more than 1 page of A4 in Arial font, size 11 (approx. 300 words), to include 1 table or figure if applicable. If accepted this will form the basis of your poster presentation/data blitz session at the School.

3. A short CV including research interests.

The Summer School is targeted at PhD/DPhil/MD students and other early career researchers.

Important dates:

The closing date for applications is: 29th January 2016
The decisions will be announced on 1st March 2016

Online registration will be open from 7th March 2016
